YOUR CRUISE

PONANT invites you to set sail in the footsteps of the Great Explorers during a 16-day cruise between the Antarctic Peninsula and South Georgia.

Sailing from Ushuaia, you will board Le Soléal for an exceptional journey to a land at the end of the world.

You will start this expedition cruise with the discovery of the extraordinary landscapes of the Peninsula. Between long stretches of ice floes and sparkling tabular icebergs, you will be able to admire a captivating polar desert made of ice and water.

Le Soléal will then continue her course towards Deception Island. Nestled within the South Shetland Islands, this volcanic island with its extremely rich wildlife is notably home to elephant seals, fur seals and more than 100 000 pairs of chinstrap penguins.

Further to the north you will reach the coastline of South Georgia. This sub-Antarctic region offers a wide variety of landscapes, between long mountain chains and black sandy beaches, where huge colonies of King Penguins have taken refuge.
