YOUR CRUISE

At the crossroads of the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, set off to discover a brand new PONANT itinerary and immerse yourself in Spanish, Arab and Portuguese cultures.

From Lisbon, the colourful capital situated on the banks of the Tagus River, you will set sail for a 9-day cruise on board Le Lyrial.

Cadiz in Andalusia will be your first port of call. Built on a rock and surrounded by the sea, it is one of the country's oldest cities.

The voyage continues towards Malaga, with an opportunity to visit the magnificent Alhambra palace in Grenada.

Then you will head to Morocco's Tangier, the mythical port of call of so many artists, then Casablanca, the so-called "white city", where tradition and modernity mingle. Here you will discover the impressive Hassan II Mosque, considered to be one of the largest religious buildings in the world.

The last port of call of your cruise: the Canary Islands, where you will discover Tenerife.

FOCUS ON... TANGIER

Nestling in the Bay of Tangier, this bewitching Moroccan city lies at the northwestern tip of the country, along the famous Strait of Gibraltar. Following in the footsteps of the writers and artists inspired and seduced by the city's climate and setting, you'll love its rich landscapes and multicultural charm. You'll instantly understand as soon as you set foot in the heart of the Medina. An architectural masterpiece, the Kasbah is your gateway to the Sultan's Palace and its gardens. If you prefer beaches to museums, you can relax just a few minutes from the city on the beautiful sweep of sand bathed by the Atlantic Ocean.
