YOUR CRUISE

Sail from Tierra del Fuego to the Cape of Good Hope during a 22-day cruise aboard Le Lyrial with PONANT. A magical expedition from one continent to another.

You will begin your voyage in Ushuaia, the mythical embarkation port located at the extreme south of the Andes cordillera.

Your first port of call will be the Falkland Islands, a British territory covered in wild lands that are home to sheep, albatrosses and penguins.

Le Lyrial will then set sail for South Georgia, a real paradise for those who love wild lands, glaciers and preserved wildlife. In Saint Andrews, you will be welcomed by a colony of several thousand penguins, a unique privilege in the world. Your stop at Grytviken will enable you to discover the vestiges of the former whaling station and the tomb of the explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton.

Continue your trip with another highlight as you visit the world's most remote inhabited archipelago: Tristan da Cunha. Hidden in the middle of the Atlantic, it is made up of several volcanic islands, most of which are listed as UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Finally, you'll head for Cape Town, your disembarkation port, dominated by the famous silhouette of Table Mountain.
