YOUR CRUISE

Remote territory still unknown and wild, landscape from wide spaces to gigantic glaciers, steep mountains, infinite tundra and glittering lacs ; Alaska invites you to follow the steps of trappers and gold miners.

It's aboard Le Soléal that we propose you to travel to the East coast of Alaska and territory of British Columbia in which "The Inside Passage" was made by cutting through imposing glaciers to access vertiginous fjords. Make sure to discover Sitka, location was originally settled by the Tlingit people over 10,000 years ago. Formerly New Archangel under Russian rule, is a unified city-borough located on Baranof Island and the Southern half of Chichagof Island in the Alexander Archipelago of the Pacific Ocean, in the U.S. state of Alaska. Explore Sitka's Russian, Tlingit and American culture both past and present with true Alaskans. We will discover the Alaska Pioneer's Home, totems... Sitka is an a classic Alaskan small-town from resident sourdoughs and dynamic native community to vibrant fishing industry and flourishing performing arts.

Discover Alaskan towns rich with historical vestiges from the time of the remarkable "Gold Rush", interspersing ports of calls with periods of navigation aboard L'Austral and excursions in Zodiac® dinghies to the heart of the fjords and landscapes that are out of this world.

During your trip, discover the unique wildlife at some of the sites that have marked the history of Alaska.

Go through British Columbia, a territory known to be a huge nature reserve divided between snow-capped mountain chains, amazing glaciers, sumptuous rivers and prestigious forests

FOCUS ON... SKAGWAY

In the 19th century, it was through Skagway, a small town in south-east of Alaska, that swarms of gold seekers passed in their quest for gold. You can get a sense of these pioneers as you wander along the main street, Broadway, edged with the painted houses typical of this region. From White Pass & Yukon Route station, trains across pristine landscapes over the Alaskan border. All around the town, a handful of paths taken by the seekers of the precious metal, fan out into superb natural surroundings offering
